Anzac Poem Sophie Lewendon

Soldiers went to Gallipoli,
And some came back luckily,
Soldiers fought all day and night,
The guns were like dynamite.
The soldiers proudly wore their uniform of khaki,
Simpson a gallant ambo saved multiple people with his donkey,
Many soldiers lie beneath the soil in Flanders Fields,
Whit crosses make the graves
Of our soldiers loyal and brave,
Today we honor them,
We are proud our diggers helped stop all the mayhem,
Our Anzac spirit still lives on,
We celebrate and remember our soldiers long after they have gone.

ANZAC DAY POEMS

By Lucy McGuinn

The ANZAC spirit lies within us all, because the Anzac's fought for us and our freedom. The peace we have in Australia and New Zealand today, is only because of the painful wars that the diggers had to endure. Over 100 years ago, on the 25th of April, the diggers landed on the Gallipoli peninsula in Turkey. They displayed great endurance, initiative, discipline and mateship over 8 long months of fighting. These qualities became known as the ANAC spirit. Today we remember and honour their courage. Lest We Forget.

They Fought For Us

By Ella Earles

Our brave Anzac's fought for freedom in fields where poppies blossomed,
They fought in trenches dug deep, the conditions were so bad, they could barely sleep,
Each Anzac Day we remember our brave troops,
People watch them march from verandahs and very high rooves,
The Anzac spirit has lived on,
Though most of our diggers have now gone.
Australians and New Zealanders fought side by side.
They were in unfamiliar countries vast and wide.
Our country is one of the best
We remember countless thousands that are now laid to rest.
Lest we forget.

Anzac Day Poem

By Amity Phelan

Because of the war lives were lost,
Loved ones were killed.
Now they lie in foreign soils in far off countries.
We remember what they have done to save our country.
Every year on the 25th of April we stand in silence to pay respect to those who are no longer with us,
The soldiers sacrificed their own lives to save our country and our way of life.
The red poppies of Flanders Fields provide a background to the rows of white crosses
Of our brave Anzac diggers.
Lest we forget.
